STAR WARS BABY BLOCKS

e EASY

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- 20cm Star Wars grey chibbi minky fleece
- 20cm Star Wars chibbi block
- 20cm Organic cotton navy quilters
- 20cm Organic cotton off white quilters
- Sewing machine
- Matching thread
- Scissors
- Ruler
- Pencil

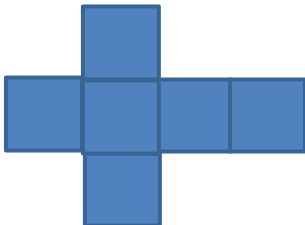

INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1 - Cut your fabrics for each block you will need 6 - 3.5" squares

- Star Wars grey chibbi minky fleece x 2
- Star Wars chibbi blocks x 2 - this print can be fussy cut to have 4 icons within the square, make sure to line your ruler up and cut $\frac{1}{4}$ seam allowance around the 4 icons you have chosen - see finished image for guidance)
- Organic cotton navy quilters x 1
- Organic cotton off white quilters x 1

NOTE - Use a $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam allowance when sewing the squares together. Leave $\frac{1}{4}$ " at the start and end of each side, you will use that $\frac{1}{4}$ " to attach one square to another.

Step 2 - Sew the 4 Star Wars print squares together into a row of 4 alternating each print. Sew one navy square to the top of the second square in the row, and the off-white square to the bottom. So they look like this;

Step 3 - Bring the sides up one at a time and stitch them together until you have a cube. Leave a 1.5" opening between two of the squares for turning and stuffing.

Step 4 - Clip the corners to reduce bulk, then turn the block right side out.

Step 5 - Stuff with hobby fill and use a ladder stitch to close the opening.
